According to many users, the app suffers from bugs that makes it hard for users to follow other users on the app. Some cases include not being able to see some of the filters used in a video or even being unable to see people's comments on posts. There have also been allegations by multiple users that their accounts have been hacked or deleted without their consent. On December 13, 2021, the company faced backlash over its handling of inappropriate content and in turn lost a lot of users. In some cases, people have had their accounts deleted without the option to retrieve."

Some publications have reported on when TikTok has received funding, with one publication stating "The Beijing-based parent company of the messaging app started more than five years ago as a site for sharing short video clips. It is thought to have been the first social network that allows users to post videos — essentially short video films — aimed at helping them find friends and build real-life connections. The company was later renamed as ByteDance and announced it would launch an IPO in Hong Kong this month." This article was published on CNNMoney."
